Note :- Cardholder has to activate the card within 30 days from date of issuance.

II. Annual membership fees for primary and add-on card holder

At present the Bank does not charge any entrance fee. However the Cards may or may not have a membership fee and may vary for each card member. (Please refer to Schedule of Charges attached).

The membership fee will be levied annually till the Card is cancelled or closed by the Bank. The fees are billed to the card account and are mentioned in the card statement for the month during which this is charged.

Add-On Cards are also subject to membership fees, as per schedule, subject to revision from time to time.

The add-on cards shall be issued only to the persons specifically identified by the principal cardholder under both personal and business credit card categories. The liability of Add-on cards will be of the principal cardholder. Similarly, while issuing corporate credit cards, the responsibilities and liabilities will be of the corporate only.

III. Cash Advance Fees

The Card holder can use the Card to access cash in an emergency from ATMs in India or abroad. Transaction fee varies, depending on whether the card holder uses it in Bank's ATM, in other Bank's ATM or abroad.

For cash withdrawal from an ATM abroad, Currency Conversion Charges also apply.

All cash advances also carry a finance charge from the date of withdrawal until the date of full payment. In case the Cash advance is not paid in full, Late Payment charges and Finance Charges for over limit interest shall be applicable.

IV. Service charges levied for certain transactions

Some transactions attract service charges on amount of transactions.

These are detailed in the schedule of charges attached hereto.

If the card holder desires to pay any tip amount at Hotels/Restaurants, this will be an offline transaction. Cardholder shall have to add this amount and sign the chargeslip. This type of transaction being offline transactions, may be permitted beyond spending limit. However, the cardholder is obliged to pay this amount.

V. Charges

All Charges and fees, as applicable from time to time, are payable for services provided for defaults committed with reference to card account.

Bank shall advise cardholder / notify changes in the schedule of fees and charges and terms and conditions. Normally, changes (other than interest rates and those which are a result of regulatory requirements) will be made with prospective effect after giving notice of at least one month. The changes will be notified along with the monthly statement of account or copy thereof. In case of a default, the same will be reported to Credit Information Companies (CICs).

Please refer the schedule of charges to know various charges.

VI. Interest free Period and Grace Period

a) Interest Free Period

Use under the Credit Card allows a free Credit Period of 21 to 51 days depending upon the date of purchase and the date of payment. If the transactions happens to be a day after the billing date then this transaction will be billed in the next billing cycle. In such cases a maximum interest free credit period of about 51 days will be available. However if the purchase is done a day or two prior to the billing date then that transactions will appear in that very next billing in which case only a free credit period of about 21 days will be available.

Thus on an average an interest free credit period of 35-37 days will be available depending on the date of purchase.

Please however note that this interest free credit period will be applicable only if the "Total payment amount due" on the Card stands paid in full by due date. However if only the "minimum payment due" or an amount less than the "total payment due" is paid then the interest free credit period will not be available and applicable service/finance charges will be levied.

The 'interest-free credit period' is suspended if any balance of the previous month's bill is outstanding.

Illustration

Card Purchases of Rs. 11,000/- on 20/09/2018. This is included in Bill generated on 15/10/2018, which is beyond 21 days of purchase. Interest free credit period in this case is 46 days (Sep – 11 days, Oct – 31 days, Nov – 4 days). Had the cardholder purchased this on 16/09/2018 Interest free credit period of 50 days would have been available.

Card dues of Rs. 11,000/- are payable on 05/11/2018.

Case-I (Paid within Grace Period)

Customer if pays the dues by cash / NEFT / online by 08/11/2018.

Since this is within the grace period, this will be deemed to have been paid in time and accordingly late payment fee and interest for non-payment/delayed payment shall not be applicable.

Case-II (Not Paid within Grace Period)

Customer if pays partial dues of Rs. 600/- by cash/NEFT/online after banking hours of 08/11/2018.

Since this is not within the grace period. Late payment fee and interest for non-payment/delayed payment shall be applicable.

Late payment fee for 1 month - Rs 100/-

(Dues being Rs 10,400/-, i.e. more than Rs, 10,000/-)

Finance Charges - From 20/09/2018 for entire purchase of Rs. 11,000/-

(Interest free period is not available as total dues are not paid on due dates)

All these fees, interest and applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) shall be billed on 15/11/2018 and payable in full by 05/12/2018.

VII. Finance charges – Cash Advance, Revolving credit and EMI

A credit card statement will be issued every month showing all purchases done during the billing period. The Credit Card statement will inter alia show the "Total payment due", "minimum payment due", "due date" etc. In case the Cardholder has opted for the revolving Credit facility he will have the option of paying the "Total amount due" or "the minimum amount due". In case the Cardholder chooses to pay the Minimum Payment due the balance remaining will be carried forward and a service charge will be charged on such outstanding amounts.

VIII. Overdue interest charges and Charges in case of default

If the Cardholder does not pay the total payment due or the minimum amount due on due date then finance charges will be levied on monthly basis.

2. Withdrawal limits

I. Credit limit

The Bank assigns credit limit, referred as "spending limit" to the Cardholder taking into consideration his income and/or his relationship with the Bank.

Spending limit so assigned by the Bank shall be revised at the request of the Cardholder but at the sole discretion of the Bank.

II. Available credit limit

Whenever the cardholder uses his Card for purchasing goods and services or for Withdrawing Cash, his spending limit (credit limit) is reduced by the amount so spent. Any service charge/interest/fees/taxes charged to the Card account will also be reduced from the spending limit. Authorizations obtained by the merchant on the Card at the time of purchase of any goods and services also will be reduced. Spending limit available after reduction on account of all the charges as said above is the available credit limit for further use of the cardholder.

The Bank may restrict usage of Credit Card limit if the cardholder is non-KYC compliant, Charge Account is invalid, inoperative, dormant, frozen, overdrawn or any credit facilities turn non-performing asset (NPA).

III. Cash withdrawal limit

Cardholders are allowed to withdraw cash or from ATMs using their Credit Cards whenever they wish to do so. A certain limit out of the spending limit is earmarked for the purpose. This limit so specified against each Credit Card is the Cash limit, which is presently 50% of spending limit, subject to a per day ceiling of Rs. 15,000/-. Cash limit operates within the overall spending limits. Cash cannot be withdrawn in excess of the cash limit prescribed. This facility is available for Retail Credit Card only.

IV. Reduction of Credit limit

If the cardholder requests for reduction in limit, Bank shall ensure that confirmation regarding cancellation / reduction of limit / closure of the credit card is conveyed within 7 working days of the request being received in writing or through an e-mail id registered with the Bank, provided that the outstanding amount, if any, is settled / paid.

If the Bank decides to decrease the limit for any reason, 30 days' notice shall be given to the cardholder before effecting the decrease in limit. Reason for reduction in limit shall also be conveyed to the cardholder through sms/e-mail/letter.

3. Billing

I. Billing statements – periodicity and mode of sending

To help cardholder manage credit card account and check details of purchases / cash withdrawals, Bank shall send a monthly statement, free of cost, with details of the transactions made with / using credit card. The credit card statement shall be dispatched on a predetermined date every month, by post / courier to cardholder's mailing address or, if cardholder so desires, by e-mail to the address registered with Bank. The statement will also be made available for viewing on internet banking.

Payments made towards the card outstanding are acknowledged in subsequent statements.

Bank shall ensure that wrong bills are not raised and issued nor will Bank levy charges which have not been notified. In case, a complaint is raised against any bill, Bank will provide explanation and, if necessary, documentary evidence will also be provided to cardholder within a maximum period of sixty days with a spirit to amicably redress the grievances. In case erroneous charges are reversed, the reversal will not be deemed as settlement of dues.

In the event of non-receipt of this statement, we expect you to get in touch with us so that we can arrange to resend the details to enable you to make the payment and highlight exception, if any, in a timely manner.

II. Minimum amount payable Bank offers various options to cardholders, including revolving credit and Equated Monthly Instalments (EMI).

If the cardholder chooses revolving credit, minimum 10% amount and interest thereon is payable and is added to the card dues for the current billing.

In case of EMI, the EMI amount is added to the current billing. In case of first EMI, additionally the one-time processing charges and interest on EMI amount shall be charged to the card account for current billing.

Cardholders can choose to pay the amount of the bill in full or they can choose to pay through minimum amount due.

“Monthly Cardholder Statement” shows the “Total Amount Due” and “Minimum Amount Due”. In case the Cardholder wants to pay in installments he must pay at least the “Minimum amount due” shown in the monthly cardholder statement.

All payments made for a cardholder account shall be settled in the order of Minimum Amount Due, EMI on EMI based products, 10% of Total Outstanding in case of Revolving Credit, Fees & Other Charges, Interest charges, Balance Transfer Outstanding, Purchase Outstanding and Cash Advance.

III. Method of payment

In case of Direct billing, cardholder can pay the amount of the bill by way of a cheque or demand draft drawn in favour of the Bank or by online. In case the bills are to be paid by way of cheque or demand draft the instrument must be drawn favouring “Bank of India A/c masked Card Number. The Cardholder can pay the amount of bill at any of the branch of the Bank. The cardholder can also opt for payment to be made from his charge account with any of the Bank’s branches on due date.

i. Cash/Cheque

Amount to be deposited in/remitted to A/C No 01019020000001 [Title of A/C: Card Dues Remitted]

If cheque is deposited then the details of masked Card Number to be written and bank shall post credit with proper value dating (date of receipt of funds) to avoid late penalty payment.

In case of outstation cheques and return cheques applicable charges shall be deducted before appropriating towards credit card dues. For applicable charges please refer to Schedule of Charges.

ii. Online Payment

Online payment can be done by Cardholder through

7. Fair Practices Code For Credit Card Operations

Our Fair Practice Code for Credit Card Operations is attached. A copy of this policy is available on Bank's website.

8. Default and circumstances

- I. Procedure including notice period for reporting a card holder as defaulter

Bank shall report a credit card account as 'past due' to credit information companies (CICs) or levy penal charges, viz. late payment charges and other related charges, if any, only when a credit card account remains 'past due' for more than three days. The number of 'days past due' and late payment charges shall, however, be computed from the payment due date mentioned in the credit card statement, as specified under the regulatory instructions on 'Prudential norms on Income Recognition, Asset Classification and Provisioning pertaining to Advances' amended from time to time. Penal interest, late payment charges and other related charges shall be levied only on the outstanding amount after the due date and not on the total amount.

For providing information relating to credit history/repayment record of the cardholder to a Credit Information Company (that has obtained Certificate of Registration from RBI), the Bank shall explicitly bring to the notice of the customer that such information is being provided in terms of the Credit Information Companies (Regulation) Act, 2005.

Card accounts are monitored continuously and are identified on the basis of age of overdue amounts and recovery reminders are sent to the Cardholders, duly escalated as per age of the overdue amounts and response of the cardholder. In case the cardholder makes part payment of the bill amount another reminder is sent. Where the cardholder is an employee of a reputed organization a letter may be sent to the employer as well.

Upon persistent delinquency of the cardholder, the card is put in the warning bulletin thus preventing further use. Details of the card are also placed in the inter-bank negative list so that other card issuing banks are put to alert about the defaulter. The card accounts are handed over to approved Recovery Agents for further follow-up and recovery.

The Cardholder acknowledges that as per existing business practices, the Bank can disclose from time to time any information relating to the Credit Card(s), to any credit bureau (Existing or Future) without any notice to the customer. The Credit Information Bureau India Ltd. (CIBIL) is an initiative of the Government of India and Reserve Bank of India to improve the functionality and stability of the financial system. All banks and financial institutions participating in this initiative are required to share customer data with CIBIL / credit bureaus and this information is being provided in the terms of the Credit Information Companies Regulation Act, 2005. In view of this the bank can disclose any information relating to credit card(s) default by the customer to CIBIL and to any other credit bureau (Existing and Future) in case the card is overdue, with due notice. Any refresh / updation of data on receipt of payment towards overdue card accounts will reflect in CIBIL / other credit bureaus within a period of 60 days from the date of receipt of payment by the bank.

Notwithstanding the reversal of a wrong billing, unnotified charges will not be the cause of reporting to CICs. In case Bank treats the reversal of charges as settled, Bank shall inform CIC about the settlement and inform cardholder of the same being reported to CIC.

Bank shall report a credit card account as 'past due' to credit information companies (CICs) or levy penal charges, viz. late payment charges and other related charges, if any, only when a credit card account remains 'past due' for more than three days. The number of 'days past due' and late payment charges shall, however, be computed from the payment due date mentioned in the credit card statement, as specified under the regulatory instructions on 'Prudential norms on Income Recognition, Asset Classification and Provisioning pertaining to Advances' amended from time to time. Penal interest, late payment charges and other related charges shall be levied only on the outstanding amount after the due date and not on the total amount.

For providing information relating to credit history/repayment record of the cardholder to a Credit Information Company (that has obtained Certificate of Registration from RBI), the Bank shall explicitly bring to the notice of the customer that such information is being provided in terms of the Credit Information Companies (Regulation) Act, 2005.

- II. Procedure for withdrawal of default report and the period within which would be withdrawn after settlement of dues

If the Cardholder pays off all his dues to the entire satisfaction of the Bank then his name will be withdrawn from the Credit Information Company, CIBIL Database within 30 days of his notifying the Digital Banking Department, Mumbai and receipt of payment by the Bank and similar steps as appropriate will be done with other Credit Information Company/agencies also.

- III. Recovery procedure in case of default

Defaulter cardholders are intimated about their defaults and if even after considerable lapse of time the amounts are not paid, the cases are handed over to approved recovery agents to contact the cardholder and follow up for recovering the amount. If the matter still remains to be settled legal action is initiated. All avenues for recovery such as compromise settlements will be open to the cardholder for making repayments.

- IV. Recovery of dues in case of death/permanent incapacitation of cardholder Recovery of dues in case of a deceased or permanently incapacitated cardholder will be made from the estate/legal heirs of such Cardholder by legal procedures.

- V. Insurance of Cardholder

In case Bank offers any insurance cover to credit card holders, in tie up with insurance companies, Bank shall obtain in writing from the cardholder the details of nominee/s for the insurance cover in respect of accidental death and disablement benefits.

All the relevant nomination details shall be recorded by Insurance company which will handle claims relating to insurance cover.

9. Termination/Revocation of card membership

Procedure for surrender of card by card holder – due notice

A. Cardholder Related

The Cardholder may at any time by notice terminate the use of the Card (without affecting his or her Liability in respect of the use of the Card prior to termination) by surrendering his or her Card to the Bank. A cardholder who wishes to surrender Card at any time must inform the Bank in writing of his/her intention of cancellation of the Card to the Digital Banking Department, Head Office or to the branch that has issued the Card. He must cut the Card into four pieces diagonally and send the same along with his request letter.

The death or in capacitance of a Card holder insolvency / dissolution / bankruptcy or winding up of a corporate body of a Card holder shall automatically cancel the card issued, including Add-on Card/s. The Card Account shall also be liable to be suspended on instructions from any government/regulatory body. All amounts outstanding on the Card Account shall be deemed to have immediately become due on death or in capacitance, insolvency, bankruptcy, winding up or instruction from government/regulatory bodies, as the case may be, and Bank shall be entitled to recover the same in accordance with the relevant laws in force without prejudice to the obligation of the Card holder to forth with pay all outstanding amounts.

The Cardholder shall be liable to all charges incurred on the Card till the Bank cancels it. In the case of Card usage in a Card absent environment such as Internet / Mail Order / Telephone Order transactions etc. the Cardholder continues to be liable for all transactions done using his Card number and the Cardholder is required to rescind all standing instructions he had given for using his Card at all such merchants (including specific example: mobile/ telephone companies).

No annual, joining or renewal fees shall be refunded on a pro-rata basis.

B. At the instance of the Bank

The Bank may cancel the Card at any time without notice or refuse to re-issue, renew or replace any Card.

Below are some of the important conditions (illustrative, not exhaustive) which might result in cancellation:

- i. The customer violates the conditions for issuance of International Credit Card by undertaking activities not permitted under FEMA, 1999
- ii. In case the Bank notices unusual and abnormal transaction patterns in the use of the Card, the Bank will try to establish contact with the customer on the registered phone number of the customer available on its records to verify the genuineness of the card transaction. Failure on the part of the Bank to establish contact with the customer, the Bank may restrict/terminate the use of the Card without any further notice, if the Bank reasonably believes it necessary in the interest of the Cardholder and for security reasons. The Bank shall not be liable for any loss – direct, indirect or consequential.
- iii. Bank can suspend the facility on the Credit Card, if:
 - a) The Cardholder defaults on payment due or exceeds the credit limit extended.
 - b) KYC/Re-KYC is required to be completed.
 - c) Charge Account is invalid, inoperative, dormant, frozen, overdrawn or any credit facilities turns non-performing asset (NPA).

- d) The Credit Card must not be used after the Agreement has ended, the card account is suspended or notice for cancellation has been issued.
- e) With a view to ensure that the Credit Card is being used as per the regulatory guidelines, Terms and Conditions and applicable policies of the Bank, Bank shall have a right to run periodic checks on the Credit Card usage to identify whether there is excessive utilization of credit limit beyond the sanctioned limit in one statement cycle, unusual or excessive utilization at few select merchants, possible collusion with merchant and/or usage towards non-personal/business related requirements, over-use/misuse of features/ offers/ programs towards accumulation of undue reward points/ cash back / other benefits amongst others. Based on the usage patterns, if any of these is suspected by the Bank, Bank may take restrictive action on the Credit Card. Such action can be with immediate effect and may include but not be limited to withdrawal of features/ benefits as well as complete termination of the Credit Card.
- f) If any such action is taken by the Bank onus will be on customer to provide satisfactory proof of bonafide usage to reinstate the Credit Card and attached features/ benefits as may be deemed fit by the Bank. Bank's decision in this regard shall be final and binding on the card holder.
- g) Where the Bank decides to cancel / revoke / suspend the card, the Card holder must (subject to any default or other notice required by law) immediately pay Bank the total outstanding balance on the Account. This includes all amounts due to Bank under the Agreement, including all transactions and other amounts not yet charged to the Account. The card account shall not be considered as closed until the entire dues, including fees, charges, interest and taxes thereon has been paid in full.
- h) The Bank has the right to withdraw the privileges attached to the Card and/or has the right to call upon the Cardholder to surrender the Card and/or to pick it up through the Bank's representative and/or through the Merchant Establishments or their representative without assigning any reason whatsoever. Use of the Card after notice of withdrawal of privileges is fraudulent and subjects the Cardholder to legal proceedings.
- i) The Bank may. Unless and until such termination occur the Bank will re-issue the Card from time to time for use in accordance with the agreement.
- j) Membership fee if any, will not be refunded on surrender / cancellation of Card.

C. Closure of Credit Card

- i. If a credit card has not been used for a period of more than one year, Bank shall initiate process to close the card after intimating the cardholder. If no reply is received from the cardholder within a period of 30 days, the card account shall be closed by Bank, subject to payment of all dues by the cardholder. The information regarding the closure of card account shall also accordingly be updated with the Credit Information Company/ies within a period of 30 days.

- ii. Customer may hotlist the card through any of the following modes:
 - a) Toll-free / Landline number of the Call Centre
 - b) E-mail to the designated e-mail id.
 - c) IVRS / Phone Banking.
 - d) Internet Banking, Mobile Banking and other Applications subject to availability.
- iii. Any request for closure of a credit card shall be honoured within seven working days by the Bank, subject to payment of all dues by the cardholder.

10. Loss / theft / misuse of card

- I. Procedure to be followed in case of loss/theft / misuse of card

The Cardholder is responsible for the security of the Card and shall take all steps towards ensuring that the Card is not misplaced/misused.

The Cardholder shall be liable for all losses in case of misuse of the card by someone who obtained the PIN or the card with the consent of Cardholder/ additional Cardholder.

If the Cardholder has acted fraudulently the Cardholder shall be liable for all losses. If the Cardholder acts without reasonable care, the Cardholder shall be liable for all losses incurred.

The Cardholder must notify the 24 Hour Call Center immediately, followed by written confirmation within 7 days, if the Primary or any Additional credit card is misplaced, lost, stolen, mutilated, not received when due or if he/she suspects that the Credit Card is being used without Cardholder's permission.

Once a card is reported lost, it should not, under any circumstance be used if found by the Cardholder subsequently. As the Add-On card is an extended facility given on the Primary Card Account, the Add-on card is rendered invalid when the primary card is reported lost. Similarly, if the Add-on card is reported lost, the primary Card Account and other Add-on cards are invalidated.

In the event of the loss or theft of the Card, the Cardholder must also lodge an FIR with the Police and submit acknowledge copy to the Bank. Bank may, without referring to the Cardholder or any additional Cardholder, give the police or other relevant authorities any information that Bank consider relevant about the loss, theft, misuse of a Card or PIN.

A replacement Card will normally be issued at the Bank's discretion, for a replacement fee to be decided by the Bank.

a) Card holder will be entitled for Zero liability where the unauthorized transaction occurs in the following events:

- i. Contributory fraud / negligence / deficiency on bank's part.
- ii. Third party breach where the deficiency lies elsewhere in the system and you notify us within three working days of receiving the communication from us regarding the unauthorized transaction.

b) Card holder shall be liable for the loss occurring due to unauthorized transactions in the following cases:

- i. In cases where the loss is due to card holder's negligence such as where card holder has shared the payment credentials, card holder will bear the entire loss until you report the unauthorised transaction to us. Any loss occurring after the reporting of the unauthorized transaction shall be borne by bank.
- ii. In cases where the responsibility for the unauthorized electronic banking transaction lies neither with bank nor card holder, but lies elsewhere in the system and when there is a delay (of four to seven working days after receiving the communication from bank) on card holder's part in notifying bank of such a transaction, card holder's per transaction liability shall be limited to that transaction value or the amount whichever is lower as mentioned in RBI guidelines issued from time to time on the subject.
- iii. Further, if the delay in reporting by the card holder is beyond seven working days, card holder's liability shall be determined as per Bank's Board approved policy which will be available in public domain / Bank's website. We shall provide the details of Bank's policy in regard to card holder's liability formulated in pursuance of the RBI directions on the subject at the time of opening the accounts. Bank will inform all the customers individually also about our policy on the subject.

c) Reversal Timeline for Zero Liability / Limited Liability

On being notified by the card holder, bank shall credit (shadow reversal) the amount involved in the unauthorised electronic transaction to card holder's r account within 10 working days from the date of such notification by the card holder (without waiting for settlement of insurance claim, if any). The credit shall be value dated to be as of the date of the unauthorised transaction.

Further, we will ensure that:

- i. Card holder's complaint is resolved and liability, if any, established within such time, as may be specified in Bank's Board approved policy, but not exceeding 90 days from the date of receipt of the complaint and card holder will be compensated as per RBI guidelines on the subject.
- ii. Where Bank is unable to resolve the complaint or determine card holder's liability, if any, within 90 days, the compensation as per RBI guidelines will be paid.
- III. Liability of card holder in case other than (ii) above

The Cardholder shall be fully liable for all the Charges on the lost Card. The Cardholder shall be liable for all transactions on the Card up to the time of reporting of the loss/theft/damage.

Card swipe transactions may get processed by merchants without PIN / additional authentication, when it is initiated on merchants located outside India as it may not be a mandate in those countries. Cardholder is wholly liable for all transactions prior to reporting of loss of the card.

In the event the loss/theft of Card is not reported in writing as above to the Bank, the Cardholder shall be liable for all the charges transactions on the lost/stolen Card and the Cardholder indemnifies the Bank fully against any liability (civil or criminal), loss, cost, expenses or damages that may arise due to loss or misuse of the Card. In the event the transactions are received by the Bank after the Card has been reported lost or stolen but before the receipt of the Cardholder's written confirmation as above, the Cardholder shall continue to be fully liable for all amounts debited to the Card Account.

12. Disclosure

- I. Type of information relating to card holder to be disclosed with and without approval of card holder

The cardholder has specifically consented to the Bank for processing of data by outsourced technology vendor. Therefore, the cardholder services relating to queries, request and grievances may be attended to by the technology vendor. It shall be Bank's responsibility to ensure confidentiality of cardholder details, including personal details.

The Credit Information Company is an initiative of the Government of India and the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) to improve the functionality and stability of the Indian financial system. This is in line with RBI's efforts to provide an effective mechanism for exchange of information between banks and financial institutions, thereby enabling cardholders to avail of better credit terms from various institutions.

The Cardholder acknowledges that Bank is authorized to share cardholder information to a Credit Information Company (that has obtained Certificate of Registration from RBI). Bank shall provide information relating to repayment record of the cardholder to a Credit Information Company within a period of 45 – 60 days.

In the event of a dispute, Bank will make suitable amends to the reporting procedure before reporting the card holder as defaulter. However it may also be noted that such disclosure/release of information would be contingent on time available to investigate and settle such disputes raised.

The Cardholder further acknowledges that Bank is authorized to share Cardholder information, including default in payments with Financial Institution, employer and to other third parties engaged by Bank for proper operation of card accounts, verification and other administrative services.

Bank may also share Cardholder information with any parent, subsidiary, affiliate or associate of Bank, for the purposes of marketing and offering various products and services of Bank or its group companies, subsidiaries, affiliates and/or associates.

If the cardholder is not agreeable to such disclosures, cancellation of card/s, including add-on cards may be sought. However, refund of any amount, whether proportionate or full, shall not be made by the Bank.

13. Prohibition of Overseas Transactions and/or Forex Trading through card

Bank International Credit Card(s) shall be strictly in accordance with exchange control regulations, law of the land or of the Regulatory authorities as applicable from time to time.

The Card is valid for use both in India as well as abroad. It is, however, not valid for making foreign currency transactions in Nepal and Bhutan.

Usage of the Card for transacting outside India must be made in accordance with applicable law including the Exchange Control Regulations of the RBI and the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999. Foreign exchange trading through internet trading portals is not permitted. In the event of any violations or failure to comply, cardholder may be liable for penal action. The card holder undertakes to keep himself/herself abreast of the Act, Rules and Regulations in this regard. Cardholder should consult Authorized Dealer (AD) regarding Foreign Exchange Entitlement

Use of credit cards for making remittances/payments towards capital account transactions such as investment in overseas entities or setting up of entities overseas is not a permissible method of funding under RBI's Master Direction - Direct Investments by Residents in Joint Venture/Wholly Owned Subsidiary abroad.

As per RBI Master Circular- Master Circular on Miscellaneous Remittances from India facilities for Residents, use of Credit Card is prohibited for purchase of prohibited items like lottery tickets, banned or proscribed magazines, participation in sweepstakes, payment for call-back services, etc., since no drawal of foreign exchange is permitted for such items/activities. Please refer to latest Master Circular/ Master Direction on Miscellaneous Remittances from India facilities for Residents for more details.

Apart from contraventions of the Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA), 1999, cardholder may be made liable for violation of regulations relating to know Your Customer (KYC) norms / Anti-Money Laundering (AML) standards.

Fair Practice Code For Credit Card Operations

1. Preamble

- 1.1 This is a voluntary code, adopted by Bank of India for the operations of their Credit Cards Division. It is expected that this Fair Practice Code will act as a benchmark service standard in the Bank's dealings with individual customers. The code is expected to help the credit card users in knowing their rights and also measures they should take to protect their interests. This code is being made available on the website of Bank of India, for free access by the customers of the Bank and the general public.

The covenants of this code will supplement and will not replace those applicable under Banker's Fair Practice Code recommended by Indian Banks' Association and adopted by the credit card issuing members/institutions.

About this code

- 1.2 As a voluntary document, the code promotes competition and encourages market forces to achieve higher operating standards to benefit customers. In the Code, 'you' denotes the credit card customer and 'we' denotes the credit card issuer. The standards of the Code are governed by the four key commitments detailed in section 2.

Unless stated otherwise, all parts of this code apply to all the credit card products and services, whether we provide them across the counter, over the phone, on the Internet or by any other method.

Commitments outlined in this code are applicable under normal operating environment. In the event of force majeure, we may not be able to fulfill the commitments under this Code.

2. Key Commitments

We promise to:

- 2.1 Act fairly and reasonably in all our dealings with you by:
- meeting the commitments and standards in this Code, for the products and services we offer, and in the procedures and practices our staff/agents follow
 - making sure our products and services meet relevant laws and regulations
 - ensuring that our dealings with you will rest on ethical principles of integrity and transparency.
 - not engaging in any unlawful or unethical consumer practice.

Credit Card is a plastic card with a credit facility, which allows you to pay for goods and services or to withdraw cash.

2.2 you to understand how our credit card products and services work by giving you the following information in a simple language:

- what are the benefits to you
- how you can avail of the benefits
- what are their financial implications
- whom you can contact for addressing your queries and how

2.3 Deal quickly and effectively with your queries and complaints by:

- offering channels for you to route your queries
- listening to you patiently
- accepting our mistakes, if any
- communicating our response to you promptly
- telling you how to take your complaint forward if you are not satisfied with the response.

2.4 Publicize this Code, by making it available for public access on our website and make copies available for you on request.

3. Information

(To help you to choose products and services, which meet your needs)

PRIVACY POLICY

We are bound by the Acts and Regulations relating to Privacy and will protect your non-public personal information against unauthorised disclosure, misuse, reuse or use in unrestricted manner in accordance with the law. Respecting and maintaining your online privacy and the security of your personal information is extremely important to us. These principles govern how we can collect, use, hold and disclose your personal information. This Bank of India (called Bank) Privacy Policy is designed to inform you of our online and offline information privacy practices, the types of information we collect, how the information is used, and to assure you that we maintain strict security procedures to protect your information.

What type of Information?

Information can be broadly categorised as publicly available information and non-public (both personal and financial) information.

Non-public information is covered under this privacy policy.

Publicly available information is any information Bank reasonably believes is lawfully publicly available. The nature of the information, not the source of the information, determines whether it is publicly available information for purposes of the privacy policy.

To whom it applies?

It applies to all our customers, account holders, consumers, clients, service providers, contractors, sub-contractors, affiliates and their clients.

What is personal information or Personally Identifiable Information?

Personal information includes any information or opinion, about an identified individual or an individual who can be reasonably identified from the information. The information or opinion will still be personal information whether it is true or not and regardless of whether we have kept a record of it.

What kinds of personal information do we collect and hold?

When you apply for our products or services, we collect information that is necessary to be able to properly identify you, to know your requirements, expectations, and instructions in order to provide you with those products or services. For instance, we may ask for identification information such as your name, address, date of birth, details of services etc. Each time you visit our website, we collect information about your use of the website, which may include the date and time of visits, pages visited, location information, device used and IP addresses etc. We, including our service providers, may monitor, record electronically, and retain telephone conversations and electronic communications between you (including anyone acting on your behalf) and us. We have electronic surveillance systems like closed circuit TV and video recording of certain sensitive locations where your images may be captured.

Other Online Information We Collect and Use

We may collect and use other information, such as:

- Cookies: Cookies are pieces of data stored directly on the device/browser you are using when you visit our website. We may read cookies to collect information such as browser type, date and time spent on our website, and pages visited. Information collected through cookies may be used for security purposes, to facilitate navigation, to display information more effectively, to personalize and enrich your experience, to recognize your device, gather statistical information about the usage of the website, to monitor responses to our advertisements and to assist us with resolving website questions.

The cookies in your computer cannot read your hard drive, obtain any information from your browser or command your computer to perform any action. They are designed so that they cannot be sent to another site, or be retrieved by any non-Bank of India web server.

Cookies can be "persistent" or "session" cookies. Persistent cookies remain on your personal computer or mobile device when you go offline, while session cookies are deleted as soon as you close your web browser.

You can disable use of cookies through your browser settings. In this case our services may not be optimally effective.

- IP Address: Your IP Address is a number that is automatically and dynamically assigned to the device that you are using by your Internet Service Provider (ISP) or it is statically obtained by you. An IP Address is identified and logged automatically in our server log files whenever a user visits the website, along with the time of the visit and the page(s) that were visited. We use IP Addresses for keeping activity logs and having forensic capabilities if required for investigation purposes.

- Details of device used for online banking: For secure online banking we provide you the facility of multifactor authentication. One of the factors can be the endpoint devices used by you to do the banking. For security reasons, we obtain the endpoint details to bind it to your account so that this endpoint device acts as a second factor.
- Private Security Keys: For security reasons we may use PKI based authentication / digital certificate technologies. We may place a private key on your PC or mobile device to help us identify you or the device as belonging to you.
- Biometrics: We may use some customer biometric information with the use of your fingerprint, facial, or eye biometric information or behavioural biometric like how you use keyboard, mouse or move your finger on the screen etc.

We never ask for the information like passwords, PIN (Personal identification No.), OTP (One time passwords), card numbers, CVV / CVC and expiry date from anyone. We advise all not to share this with anyone including Bank officials nor keep it in any readable form.

We advise you not to disclose the information about date of birth, Aadhaar No, driving license number, PAN, passport no, account number and balance, address to anyone without a valid reason and reasonable assurance that the information would not be misused.

Mobile Applications

Bank of India mobile banking applications allow you access to your account balances, transfer funds, pay bills, and make deposits on your mobile device. This Policy applies to any personal or other information that we may collect through the mobile applications.

Where from and how We Collect Information about You?

To help us serve your financial needs, provide services, and offer new products and services to you, we collect personally identifiable information about you from:

- Information you disclose when you visit our branch/office or our website;
- Information you disclose on phone or direct conversation or through email;
- Information we receive from you on online applications, forms, and instructions;
- Information we receive from you from the written documents submitted to us;

- Commercial information service providers, such as companies that provide fraud prevention reports, credit scores, land records etc;

We won't ask you to supply personal information publicly over Facebook, Twitter, or any other social media platform or any lic site in internet.

Why do we collect, hold, use and disclose personal information?

The purposes are:

- to evaluate your eligibility for accounts, loans, and other products and services for which you apply;
- to respond to your inquiries and fulfil your requests;
- to administer, manage and service your accounts, products, and services;
- to send you marketing communications on products and services that we believe may be of interest to you, and/or to prequalify you for such products and services;
- to personalize your experience on our website by presenting products and offers tailored to you;
- to verify your identity in order to allow you online access to your accounts, conduct online transactions and to maintain measures aimed at preventing fraud and protecting the security of your account and personal information;
- to facilitate your transactions;
- to send you important information about your account(s), products and services;
- to comply with applicable law and regulation, other legal process, and law enforcement requirements; and
- for our business purposes, such as data analysis, audits, developing new and improving our existing products and services, enhancing our website, identifying usage trends, and determining the effectiveness of promotional campaigns

How do we hold personal information?

Much of the personal information we hold are stored electronically in our data center or with our trusted partners. These data centres are located in India. Also personal information is stored in paper forms. We use a wide range of security measures, to protect the personal information we hold.

Protecting Your Information, Integrity, Confidentiality, and Security

We protect information we collect about you by maintaining physical, logical, administrative, electronic, and procedural safeguards. These safeguards restrict access to your confidential information to only authorized personnel with specific need to access and utilize your information. We train our employees on how to handle your information to maintain confidentiality and privacy. To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with law and industry level best practices. These measures include computer and system safeguards, strong access controls, network and application controls, security policies, processes, trained personnel and secured repositories and buildings etc. We regularly monitor and review our compliance with internal policies, regulatory guidelines and industry best practice. We educate our employees to protect the information. The same policy applies to our trusted partners through contracts and agreements. We take reasonable steps to destroy or permanently de-identify any personal information after which it can no longer be used.

Who do we disclose your personal information to, and why? Categories of Third-Parties with Whom Bank of India May Share Information

Bank of India shares personal information with third-parties only as permitted and required by law, as per Bank's approved guidelines and your consent in connection with the administration, processing, and servicing of account and account-related transactions, in order to perform services for you and on your behalf, for example, credit reporting agencies, bill payment processors, credit, debit and ATM card processing networks, data processing companies, insurers, marketing and other companies in order to offer and/or provide financial products and services to you, and in response to legal or regulatory requirement, court order and/or other legal process or investigation.
